

Contact days: 15. April 2011

Workshop: „Finland is becoming more international?“

Procedure

1. 5 minutes
Introducing ourselves
- Imagine, you are sitting in a nice Finnish Cafe, in Downtown Helsinki and now please listen to the conversation of the new guests:

2. 5 minutes
Role play
- Sylvia and Sonja enter the coffeehouse and sit on a table. They discuss about the nice weather (spring is coming), the beautiful town, the good shopping facilities and their sightseeing program.
- Suddenly music starts to play.
- Sonja asks: “Oh, listen, it’s a nice song, for sure an American band. Do you know this song?”
- Sylvia answers: “No Sonja, completely wrong. It’s from a young Finnish band named Sunrise Avenue. The name of the song is “Hollywood Hills” and I really like this music.”
- Sonja: “It sounds really good and I am surprised that it is from a Finnish band. Could it be that Finland is becoming more international?”
- Sylvia: “I don’t know, but here are lots of Fins, maybe they can give us an answer. Let’s ask them!”

3. 5 minutes
Explanation:
PPT-slides and handout of the working material

4. 25 minutes
Group activities

5. 7 minutes x 3 = 21 minutes
Presentation of each group

6. Discussion with all participants about the results + feedback + thanks to them ...

===> Song: Hollywood Hills / Sunrise Avenue:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jlzEEhZkthY&feature=related>